DATE : 01st November, 2007.

Heard.

The Trial Court upheld transaction of purchase by Original Plaintiff Lataru in Regular Civil Suit No. 133 of 2000, as well answered other issues in favour of Lataru. This finding of fact done by the Trial Court and confirmed by the First Appellate Court is sought to be disputed by seeking re-appreciation of evidence on certain stray instances found in the Judgment of Trial Court which are sought to be read as findings than the submissions of unsuccessful defendant-appellant.

The finding of fact, which is concurrent, is not shown to be vitiated due to any illegality or being perverse. The Appeal does not raise any Substantial Question of Law.

Appeal is accordingly dismissed.
